

EXPERIENCE THE POWER OF VOLUNTEERING!

Build your skills, visibility and professional network and be recognized for your contributions to our industry. GAMA International and the GAMA Foundation offer many opportunities to become involved as an industry volunteer leader. Committee terms are on a one-year renewable basis. Leadership appointments are based on individual knowledge, commitment, leadership skills and experience.

I am interested in learning more about volunteering in the following capacities (please check all that apply)

- Writing an article for the GAMA International Journal
- Being a Company Eagle – promoting GAMA benefits by linking individual members, their companies and GAMA
- Becoming a GAMA Foundation Ambassador
- Speaking at LAMP Leading Practices Sessions
- Volunteering at LAMP
- Serving on a GAMA International Committee. Minimum time commitment includes one teleconference per month and in-person attendance at the September and LAMP All Committee Meetings.
 - Membership Development* – Increase GAMA membership and retention within and outside of your company
 - GAMA International Journal* – Solicit authors for the Journal and advise GAMA staff on field issues
 - Product Sales and Distribution*– Help companies and their field leaders become informed consumers of GAMA products, resources and tools
 - Professional Development* – Work with GAMA staff to establish topics and solicit talent for Best Practices Teleconferences and LAMP Leading Practices sessions
 - Recognition* – Enhance and support GAMA’s industry-recognized awards and recognition program
 - Resource Network* – Recruit and maintain relationships with GAMA’s resource partners, exhibitors and sponsors
 - Volunteer Development* – Identify and transition emerging talent to GAMA’s volunteer network
